TRUST ME. I GOT YOU.

If you are like most of us, your story has some challenging characters. Often there are rising & falling conflicts that make you hesitate to book your session. Will everyone behave? Can I get us all perfectly polished?

No need to worry! After years of working in a middle school, I've seen it all. Your family is free to be themselves, while my shutter is firing away.

That's part of the magical secret of how I tell the tale of your story, with all the realness & beauty inherent in the wild characters we call our family.

Allow your story to unfold. I'm just along for the ride.

SO, WHY ME?

Capturing your family's authentic personality is my obsession. I ensure every detail is true to life—in the most beautiful way. You'll cry happy tears & want to show off your portraits for lifetimes to come.

Since we'll basically become best friends by the end of our session, I'll deliver exactly what you LOVE and present you with a Modern Story that will have you booking next year's sequel.
